RHS '53 50th REUNION

August 23, 2003

Reunion Countdown Continues!

Arriving Saturday?
Gather to visit classmates
in the Hospitality Suite

We've found a few more "Lost" classmates—Ann Margolin, Eric Friberg, Allen and Lynn (Kreuser) Johnson,. Unfortunately, we had to add Franchon Glass to the "In Memoriam" list.

Tanya Gold steered us to Ann Margolin-Goldberg in Florida and Ann quickly signed on. Ron Baker and Stew Dickert exchanged life stories by e-mail. A query to "George Friberg" on the Class of '53 list on Classmates.com revealed that "George" is, indeed, our own "Eric" Friberg, and we're glad to hear he's planning on coming to reunion. Doug Towers convinced Nancy Nirdlinger to attend reunion. Nancy, in turn, took time out from skiing to send a message to tell us she had convinced Pat Schmidt to come along. Dorothy Wood is winding down her many years of teaching at Warren Wilson College in Asheville, NC. Mary Ann Kolesar e-mailed that she is a first-time reunion attendee and is looking forward to seeing old friends. Nancy Shanahan wrote she had visited Bob and Carol (Schwartz) Broscheid in their California digs. Bob and Carol wrote they can't wait to see everyone. John DeCesare sent a dig apologizing for the delay in sending his reservation money--he thought his forgetfulness was due to too many naps on the beach in Florida. We "dugged" his dig, as the latest snowstorm had just begun! Bart O'Connor and Cathie Doyle joined the 21st Century and are on line. Cathie is gaining on the learning curve—Bart depends on wife, Martha, to conquer it! We had dinner again with Dotty Jagers and husband, Lou, in their lovely Cape Cod home. With the arrival of spring we hope to get together with Joan Flickinger, who lives just a short distance from us. Jim DeLasho's will be playing Grandpa to a new grandchild at reunion time, but he'll try to join us for the 55th! Vic Nafz was planning on being at reunion, but he wintered in Arizona, bought a new home there, and is moving in June. Bob Alexander sent a picture from youth fellowship days at Asbury Church. Gosh, we were young! Carol Jamison can't make it to reunion, but sends best regards to all. She works for Washington State ferries and sails in the Washington San Juan Islands. Marlene Deatcher wants to know if someone (female!) wants to share a room at the Doral Arrowwood with her. Any takers? Contact us and we'll put you all in touch.

If there's someone out there that just can't swing the $89.00 for the dinner, write a note, give a call, or send an e-mail. Several classmates have expressed interest in contributing toward making sure those that want to attend reunion can attend reunion. It will all be very confidential!

Here's the latest list of those planning on--or thinking about--attending. The names in bold indicate those who have made full or partial payment for their dinner reservation(s). As a result, we were able to meet the March deposit required by the Doral Arrowwood Payment by all classmates must be made by August 15th, but the mailman doesn't mind delivering any you might send prior to that date. We'll deposit it in the bank and then you've got part of your reunion budget taken care of early. The "1st" after some names indicates first-time reunion attendees. Congratulations to them all for joining in on reunion fun!
